Autoreply to our r6airpermitstx@epa.gov email has recently been updated.

Due to the COVID-19 Pandemic, the EPA offices are closed to the public. At this time there is very minimal staff in the office and all staff are encouraged to continue to work from home. Staff do have their office phones forwarded to their cell phones. I would request that if you are trying to reach me and do not get me by phone, please send me an email and just ask me to give you a call.
